RULES APPLYING TO DELEGATIONS

1. Any person wishing to make a presentation regarding an individual's situation, rights and/or requests shall be governed by the following:
 - a) Any individual situation to be heard must first have been processed through all steps of existing processes for appeal.
 - b) When individuals are identified or identifiable, in any manner, the delegation will be heard in private session.
2. There shall be a maximum of two persons designated to act as spokespersons for the delegation.
3. The time allocated for the delegation's presentation shall be ten minutes.
4. Upon completion of the presentation, the Chair shall allow for up to ten minutes for questions by Board members.
5. There shall be no debate between spokespersons and members of the Board.
6. Upon conclusion of the presentation, the Board may:
 - a) receive the presentation without further debate, comment or action;
 - b) refer the matter presented to Administration for follow-up and report at the next regular Board meeting;
 - c) refer the matter presented to Committee for review and recommendation at the next Board meeting.
7. Where the matter presented is referred to Committee, the following shall apply:
 - a) The delegation is to be informed of the Committee meeting and invited to attend.
 - b) The Committee shall review with the delegation the matter in question, shall deliberate on its findings and shall prepare recommendations for the Board.
 - d) Notwithstanding rules and regulations governing the conduct of committee meetings, any delegation may attend committee meetings, but will be allowed to participate and discuss a specific matter on only one occasion.
8. Once a matter has been dealt with, as presented by a delegation, such delegation may not present the same matter for Board consideration without a delay of at least six months.
